FAMOUS ABROAD.

Sells Brothers' Big Show of the World Returns to Astoria at Home.

When it comes to even the ordinary, old-time, one-ring, small "round-top" circus, "men" are but children of a larger growth. Small wonder then that the announced visit to Frankfort on Monday, Sept. 12th, Shows—the leading and longest established of all the great arctic enterprises—creates a childlike fervor of delighted expectation. Nor is enthusiastic anticipation in this instance misplaced, for the assurance are genuine and ample that there will be revealed to us, really and intrinsically the big show of the world, so far as rare wild beast possessions, brilliant equestrian and athletic performances, gorgeous oriental pageantry, and revivified imperial, ancient-time heroic contests and pastimes can fill the bill. So there now comes to us clear from the very opposite side of the "great globe itself" after a most marvelous six-months' journey of over twenty thousand miles, and crowned with the enthusiastic praises of a great, young sister empire, a wondrously rare exhibit of strangest Australian creatures: a regal Roman hippodrome, a five-continent menagerie, three big circuses combined; a strange desert caravan of wild, warlike Bedouin athletes, the only exhibited pair of full-grown giant hippopotami; a huge elevated Olympian stage; a royal Japanese troupe; a mid-air carnival of daring evolutions; fairyland frolic for the children; golden Mother Goose Pageants, romantic pilgrimages to Mecca; Arabian Nights Entertainments, and a tremendous and magnificent free street parade, rolled into one million-dollar show for but one price of admission; or, more properly speaking, roaring, rushing, racing, marching, dancing, gliding, tumbling, soaring, diving and sporting under some ten acres of tents. Where the very thought of it fairly makes one catch his breath. And not only is it a very great, but it is a very good, clean, admirably managed show, absolutely free from any and every annoyance or objectionable association, and under the immediate eye of its proprietors, who are no irresponsible and predatory speculators, but men of high standing at home—capitalists, bank directors, and members of the Board of Trade. Not only does our own press vouch for both them and their magnificent exhibition in the most generous terms, but all the newspapers of Australia express the highest admiration for their liberality and pluck, in venturing so far with such a vast entertainment, in the face of so many formidable obstacles. They amply deserve a rousing home welcome, on all hands, and are getting it.

[Capt. W. A. Abbott, who has long been with Messrs. Percival & Hutton, Real Estate and Insurance Brokers, Des Moines, Iowa, and is one of the best known and most respected business men in that city, says: "I can testify to the good qualities of Chamberlain's Cough Remedy. Having used it in my family for the past eight years I can safely say it has no equal for either colds or coughs." 25 and 50 cent bottles for sale by J. W. Gayle, druggist.

Benson Valley.

Miss Prudie Hulet is visiting her sister, Mrs. Monie Cox, in Bellepoint, this week.
Mrs. George Bryant, of Antioch, visited her parents, Mr. and Mrs. J. D. Moore, last week.
Mr. George Mitchell, family and neice, Hittie Sudduth, of Dryridge, visited the family of Mr. Syl Sudduth, Sunday last.

The Benson Valley boys went to Mink Run and played the so-called Mink Run and Hardinsville clubs combined, the score at the end of the game standing 9 to 5 in favor of the Mink Run Club. But the Benson Valley boys came back singing, for they don't expect to beat always, especially on such grounds as that. The briers were so bad that our boys heard June bugs singing in them and thought they were bumble bees, and ran and left the ball while the Mink Run boys ran in three scores before our boys could find the ball again.

Miss Annie Baker visited Miss Florence Moore last Sunday.

All are invited to attend.

Lost.

A light tan wrap, with pink silk lining to collar. A liberal reward will be paid for its return to this office. It was lost on the Owensboro pike, between this city and Mr. Henry Church's.

Disgraceful.

A stranger who did not know better, might have mistaken this city for a mining camp on Thursday morning, had he been upon one of our principal streets and witnessed the scene of one man, under the influence of liquor, terrorizing the town, and firing his pistol at random, while officers of the law stood by without arresting and locking him up, as was their sworn duty. This was not the first time this week, nor this year for that matters, that similar scenes have been enacted upon our streets, and the law-abiding citizens would like to know from the Police Commissioners why it has not been stopped. Do they propose to keep men on the police force who will only arrest negroes for "shooting craps" or some harmless countrymen for shouting on the streets, or will they give us officers who will do their whole duty and arrest all violators of the law, regardless of who they are or what their condition in life? If the former they had better resign in a body, but if the latter, the taxpayers would like to see them "get a move on themselves" in that direction.

A Runaway.

Thursday afternoon a horse belonging to Mr. Carter Hales, of Bellepoint, attached to a heavy Tennessee wagon, took fright in South Frankfort and ran away. Near the corner of Second and Bridge streets the wagon struck a road cart containing a lady and a boy. Both occupants of the cart were thrown out and badly bruised, but had no bones broken, and the cart was considerably damaged. The horse continued his mad race around the river road and into Bellepoint as far as McDaniel's stable, where he was stopped. The only damage done to the wagon was the breaking of a shaft. Almost the entire distance over which the horse ran had been filled with vehicles, bringing the people who attended the base ball game back to town, only a few minutes before, and had the runaway occurred sooner there is no telling what damage would have been done.

Right or Wrong.

Which, will we have? It does seem as if some folks prefer to have the last condition of the liver rather than the first. They perpetually dose themselves with purgatives totally without virtue as alternative of liver trouble. Hostetter's Stomach Bitters is the successful candidate for the people's choice, and yet, popular and well known as it is, there are unfortunates who keep on trying the drastic remedies of former days. It is to the intelligent portion of the public that we will now and then find ourselves obliged to utter the bitterest appeal. Reason should be guided by experience in the matter of medicine. "The best guide to our test is the lamp of experience," said a great patron of this century the Bitters, and the exclamation is pregnant with truth. For over a third of a century the Bitters daily has met with the endorsement of people suffering from liver complaint, malaria, constipation, jaundice, debility and nervous accompaniment of dyspepsia. Latterly it has declared itself and been thoroughly approved as a remedy for "la grippe."

New Postoffice.

HUDSON, HUMPHRES & CASSELL!

Tuesday's Game.

The game Tuesday resulted in one of the biggest sensations which ever shook our city. Not only were the cranks proper jostled out of their equanimity, but even those who usually take little interest in the game were astounded. It came about in this wise:

For the first five innings the game was what would be called, in slang parlance, a "hummer." Frank Barrett being in Lexington, Sherry Wintersmith not having returned, Tom Stagg declining to play and our own Dick VanDerveer being laid off, Manager Stanton had secured the services of Black, Meredith and Dreifuss, first-baseman, short-stop, and left-fielder, respectively, of the Pleasantville, and the boys were playing an elegant game. The score was 2 to 1 in our favor at the beginning of the home club's half of the fifth, when a succession of hits netted four runs, making the score 6 to 1, and seemingly winning the game. But it didn't turn out that way. In the next the boys went all to pieces, and no one could tell exactly how the Reserves scored four runs. The erstwhile "champions" were easily disposed of in their half, and the seventh inning was ushered in. The same thing happened again, and nearly every ball Merchant put over the plate was lammed right or left. Aided by a "yellow" throw on Penn's part, the visitors rolled up a total of four more, making the score 9 to 6 in their favor. No scores were made in the last half, and after Merchant had pitched one ball in the eighth, umpire Richardson addressed the stand and, stating his belief that some of the home boys, whose names he did not call, were trying to "throw" the game, declared off any bets which had been made, and gave the offenders five minutes in which to play ball in earnest. At first the astonishment at his action was so complete that no one could say or do anything, but only for an instant. Then the home club, the visitors and the audience surged over the diamond and pandemonium reigned supreme. Mr. Richardson remained unmoved, however, and at the expiration of the five minutes declared "no game" and left the grounds.

As the crowd slowly dispersed and the amazement began to subside, those who were disinterested spectators and had laid no bets were not long in agreeing, however, reluctantly, that Mr. Richardson was right. As soon as attention was called to them many things were remembered which not only gave the color of reason to such a statement, but were almost proof positive.

The management of the club, realizing instantly that something must be done, did not hesitate. Although those who were regarded as the guilty parties were two of the best and most popular players, their services were dispensed with that night and the club re-organized for Thursday's game as follows: Golins, c.; Stagg, p.; Lindsey, 1 b.; Phillips, 2 b.; Wintersmith, a. s.; Barrett, 3 b.; Hewitt, lf.; Newman, cf.; VanDerveer, rf.

Great credit is due to Mr. Richardson for his bold stand, and to the management for backing him up. It is acknowledged that the nine is weakened by the absence of the two players released, but it is honest ball which is wanted, and no one believes for an instant that any member of the present nine will play any other sort; and for this reason, should victories be less frequent, the public will, it is to be hoped, be more indulgent.

Smashed the Fence.

Workmen were removing the large elm tree, which died during the past summer, from the front of Mrs. M. S. Hendrick's residence, on Vespers street, yesterday, and by some accident the body of the tree fell across the iron fence in front of the yard and mashed down several panels of it.

IN MEMORIAM.

Mr. R. B. Lewis died at his home on the Lewis ferry bridge on the eve of August 15th, in the 62nd year of his age, and was interred in our beautiful cemetery two days later.

Mr. Lewis was the next to the youngest of a family of ten—two girls and five boys—four of whom—Mr. Walter F. Lewis, Mrs. Jennie Folsom, Mrs. P. W. Oliver and Mrs. M. A. Wade, of Lebanon, Ind.—survive him. His wife, who was Miss Sallie Smith, and six children—Mrs. J. B. Utterback, Mrs. Chas. McQueen, Mrs. W. F. Lewis, Mrs. R. B. Lewis, Jr., Miss Nettie and Miss Sam Lewis also survive him.

It had been just three years and seven days, when he died, that he lost his leg, which was amputated. He was confined to bed with his last illness, and he was devoted to his family and to his children, especially the youngest daughter, Miss Nettie, never tiring of waiting upon him.

He had expressed faith in his Savior, and a great desire to live a new life and join the church, and had lived a few days longer if it was his purpose to unite with the Christian denomination. He was very charitable and always ready to help those in need of assistance.

W. W. P. for Mr. Lewis.
Weep not for he is at rest;
Weep not on sisters and brother.
We know he has entered the land of the blest.
A FRIEND.

FRANKFORT ROUNDABOUT.

Entered at the post-office at Frankfort, Kentucky, as second-class matter.

880. A. LEWIS. Editor and Publisher.

FRANKFORT, SEPT. 3, 1892.

A New Departure.

In addition to our facilities for executing every variety of plain and fancy letter press job work, we are now prepared to furnish all kinds of fine lithographic work, such as letter heads, bill heads, note heads, cards, envelopes, checks, certificates of stock, &c. The work will be gotten up in the latest style and on short notice. If you are in need of any thing in that line call and examine our samples before ordering.

A New Leader.

The Frankfort Cornet Band have secured the services of Prof. Albert Wolf, of Cincinnati, as a leader and he will be here in a few days. Prof. Wolf is an accomplished musician, writes his own music, and under his care our home band may be expected to develop into a corps of first-class musicians. In addition to the brass band he will organize a first-class orchestra, which will furnish the music at the Opera House and also for parties and hops. As our local musicians have secured his services at considerable expense and have guaranteed his salary for one year, they hope that our citizens will encourage them with their orders for music and thus assist them in meeting their obligations to Prof. Wolf.

The professor is also an instructor on the guitar and violin and will take a number of pupils who wish to learn to perform on either instrument. Mr. Henry Ahler will give all information in regard to terms, &c.

Wanted—A New Town Clock.

The old time-keeper on the courthouse has been in use for more than a half century and seems to have worn out or has gotten in such condition that it will not keep correct time, and a new one is badly needed. The City Council should take steps to provide a new one at once. If the city is not financially able to purchase a clock, the amount might be raised among our business men. We have heard several merchants say that they were willing to contribute for the purpose. Set the ball in motion. We need a clock which will tell us the correct time of day, and need it badly. Let's have it at once.

Close His Second Year.

Rev. H. G. Henderson leaves Monday for Middleborough to attend the session of the Kentucky Annual Conference. Bishop Keener, of New Orleans, will preside. This closes Mr. Henderson's second year's ministry in this city. During the time he has been its pastor the Church has paid off a debt of sixteen hundred dollars, had about fifty additions to the membership, and is actively engaged in all lines of aggressive work. It is hoped by his congregation and the many friends he has made during his residence here, that he will be returned to his present charge for another year.

Next Wednesday Sure.

The Masonic Temple Company of this city have been compelled to postpone the letting of the contract for the erection of their new building on Ann street on account of the slowness with which the contractors have prepared their bids, but six o'clock next Wednesday, September 7th, has been fixed as the time at which all bids must be in, and no further delay will be permitted. At 8 o'clock that evening all bids that are in will be opened and the contract awarded. Contractors who propose to put in bids on the building will take notice and govern themselves accordingly.

For many years Mr. B. F. Thompson, of Des Moines, Iowa, was severely afflicted with chronic diarrhoea. He says: "At times it was very severe; so much so that I feared it would end my life. About seven years ago I chance to procure a bottle of Chamberlain's Colic, Cholera and Diarrhoea Remedy. I gave me prompt relief, and I believe cured me permanently, as I now eat or drink without harm anything I please. I have also used it in my family with the best results." For sale by J. W. Gayle, druggist.

If Messrs. Want Timber.

The Frankfort Manufacturing Company wish to buy white oak and hickory timber suitable for spokes and single trees for wagons. Persons having such timber for sale should call at their office at the Penitentiary.

Pawed in the Face.

Young Newt, Dean was attempting to lead a balky horse on the railroad bridge Tuesday afternoon, when the animal pawed him in the face, breaking his nose and cutting a gash in his cheek. Dr. Walter Dade dressed his injuries and at last accounts he was doing well.

Ladies.

Elected a Teacher.

At a meeting of the Board of Directors of the Feeble-minded Institute held on Saturday, Miss Minnie Bell was elected a teacher in that institution to fill the place of Miss Montgomery, who was not an applicant for re-election.

No Fishing Allowed.

Mr. S. Black, having recently stocked his pond with some fine fish sent him by the National Fish Commission from Washington, he has forbidden anyone to fish there until the fish have a chance to grow. Our local fishermen should remember this or they may be invited to leave should they go out there to cast a line.

The True Laxative Principle

Of the plants used in manufacturing the pleasant remedy, Syrup of Figs, has a permanently beneficial effect on the human system, while the cheap vegetable extracts and mineral solutions, usually sold as medicines, are permanently injurious. Being well-informed, you will use the true remedy only. Manufactured by the California Fig Syrup Co.

Salvini To-night.

Alexander Salvini, the talented young Italian, who has leaped into fame as a romantic actor in the last few years, will appear at the Opera House this evening in a splendid production of Don Cesar De Bazan. The play will be beautifully placed upon the stage. Much money has been spent on it, and it has been intelligently and judiciously placed where every dollar counts. The management promise a splendid production, and those who have seen it heartily testify that the promise will be fulfilled.

The scenery, which has been painted especially for the Salvini productions, is the most beautiful that has been seen in this city in many a day. The costumes, properties, etc., which go to make up an almost perfect production are supplied with lavish hand, and the result will be most pleasing to those who delight in artistic stage pictures.

Alexander Salvini has made a place for himself upon the American stage, and he has no dangerous rival near him. He has selected the romantic school with excellent judgment, and no other actor of the present day is so well equipped, physically and by temperament and training, to portray the heroes of those plays of adventure.

The play of Don Cesar De Bazan, as presented by Salvini, is a beautiful romance of five acts, which abounds in mirth and sadness and is heroic and comic by turns.

There is a dash, a manliness, an abandon and a grace about Salvini's impersonation of Don Cesar that charms and captures the audience, and holds its attention throughout the entire performance.

Don't Monkey With the Time.

There is a petition in circulation requesting the City Council to have the town clock set to standard time. The change just now would not amount to much, for the reason that the old time-keeper has been behaving in such a manner for some weeks that it will not keep any sort of correct time, but if it were put in perfect order or replaced with a new one a large majority of our citizens would prefer that it give us sun time. Standard time has been tried twice and did not prove satisfactory, especially to the working classes, and our city fathers had better let well enough alone.

LOUISVILLE RESERVES 5; FRANKFORT 3.

The "Champions" met with their third defeat of the season on the home grounds at the hands of the "Louisville Reserves" on Monday. Barring one or two innings, when the home boys made a considerable number of errors, it was one of the finest games of the season, and those who stayed away under the impression that it would be such another walk-over as most of the games, missed a rare treat—barring, of course, the fact that their pets lost the contest.

To be sure we were weakened, both in batting and fielding, by the absence of our Herman Long, our Hughie Jennings—Shirley Winter smith. Although the defeat can not be laid at Tom Staggs' door (he taking Shirley's place at short), still the shifting around of the players invariably weakens a team irrespective of individual merit.

Merchant pitched an elegant game, allowing but five hits, all well scattered, and but one of the visitors' runs were earned. The Reserves, however, excelled in the field, and the Frankforts were compelled to bat in all of their three runs. Gagan pitched splendidly, notwithstanding, and only in one inning did the boys find him with any effect. In the fourth Gagan Newman led off with a two-bagger, Frank Barrett followed with a single, stole second and Roxy's double scored both. Roxy stole third while Deinst was throwing Merchant out at first on three strikes and scored on Goin's sacrifice in front of the plate.

The visitors had three men put out at home plate in the first, but did not score until the third, when Frank Barrett threw high to first on Gagan's grounder, giving him a life. Able knocked a long fly to VanDerveer, which he muffed, Gagan scoring and Able taking third. Straus then made a three-bagger to the same territory and Able walked home. Straus scored a moment later on Watt's sacrifice, Phillips to Lindsay. The other two were made in the next.

Muir was hit in the back by a pitched ball, took second on a wild pitch. Deinst took first on Staggs' error of his grounder, but Muir was held at second. Robinson advanced both a base by a clever sacrifice to Lindsay. On the return of the ball Merchant allowed it to pass him and Muir scored, Deinst taking third, whence another wild pitch allowed him to trot across the rubber, with the final run.

Not A Prophet, But—

Early in the season we took occasion to warn the management of the base ball club in this city that if the evil of betting upon the games here was not discontinued the lovers of the sport who were opposed to gambling of every kind would be driven away from the grounds, and the attendance grow beautifully less. The warning was not heeded, the gamblers took charge, and the result is two of the best players in the nine have been dismissed in disgrace, the interest in the game is dead and the attendance at the last few games has not been sufficient to enable the managers to pay expenses.

An Unfortunate Little Fellow.

Little Jimmie West, son of Hon. Isaac T. West, is indeed unfortunate. When a little boy he swallowed a silver quarter which lodged in his throat, causing him serious trouble for a long time, not long since he was kicked in the head by a horse. He was attempting to catch at the home of his grandfather, near this city, and on Thursday morning a horse he was riding fell with him at the corner of St. Clair and Broadway streets, badly injuring one of his legs.

Matrimonial.

Mr. William P. Hudson, one of our leading clothing merchants, will lead to the altar Miss Louise Lousbury, of Stamford, Connecticut, on the 11th of next month. The ceremony will take place at the home of the bride.

A prominent young attorney of this city, who has been earnestly pleading his cause at the court of loye in Louisville, has secured a decision in his favor, and the final papers in the case will be filed on the 12th of next month.

To Select Committeemen.

The Republicans of this county will meet at the several voting places in the new precincts this afternoon at 2 o'clock for the purpose of selecting a suitable person to represent them in the Republican County Committee, and the committeemen so selected will meet at the Court-house on Monday to organize by the election of a chairman and Secretary.

Big Excitement in Town

West End School.

At a called meeting of the School Board in regard to the West End School Thursday night it was agreed to continue the school under the condition that the City Council continue to furnish the house. The school board reserves the right to close the school at the end of any month if the attendance of pupils does not justify its continuance. This will place the entire responsibility in the hands of the parents patronizing the school. Last year the enrollment was seventy-one; children coming at all regular at thirty-five or six, while the actual average attendance was twenty-seven. The cost of the school is seven hun-ded and fifty dollars, including the rent of the room. Thirty-five into seven hundred and fifty, gives a cost per child of more than double the cost of children taught in the public schools.

The children taught at the West End School last year was a class of pupils who have never attended the public school, with very few exceptions, and who will in all probability never attend a private school. The advancement made by them was very encouraging, and the school did a great amount of good and was a success beyond the expectations of the advocates of the enterprise, and its continuance in the future will depend entirely with those benefited. Notwithstanding the cost, the School board earnestly desire and call upon all friends of the West End School to take an interest in the children of that neighborhood and urge a prompt and faithful attendance, and whether or not the school is continued, the doors of the public school is open to them. Come! Welcome!

During the epidemic of flux in this county, in 1888, I had hard work to keep a supply of Chamberlain's Colic, Cholera and Diarrhoea Remedy on hand. People often came ten or twelve miles in the night to get a bottle of the remedy. I have been selling patent medicines for the past ten years and find that it has given better satisfaction in cases of diarrhoea and flux than any other medicine I have ever handled—J. H. Benham, Druggist, Gloedonia, Pope Co., Ill. Over five hundred bottles of this remedy were sold in that county during the epidemic referred to. It was a perfect success and was the only remedy that did cure the worst cases. Dozens of persons there will certify that it saved their lives. In four other complaints this Remedy has been equally successful. 25 and 50 cent bottles for sale by J. W. Jayle, Druggist. 48-ct.

"The Way of the World."

"Laughed till my sides ached."
"Funniest thing I've seen in years."
These were some of the remarks heard at the Music Theatre last night as the audience sat there witnessing the first performance of the Weston Brothers in their musical comedy drama, "The Way of the World."

The audience was a very large one, the gallery being filled to overflowing, and only the last row of seats being empty. The contagion that a good audience carries with it, the company, and there wasn't a stop in the fun of the evening.

The Westons themselves are remarkably clever comedians, and in their musical specialties are perhaps without rivals. Each of their acts was encored again and again, and they certainly had every right to feel flattered with their reception on their first appearance. — Nashville Daily American.
At the Opera House Thursday evening, September 8th.
